Most of us are happy to have 2020 in our rearview mirror, but honestly, many of its hunger-related challenges are going to continue for 2021. We can’t be sure of how everything will play out this year, but we are certain of a few things:

- Unemployment and underemployment will still remain.
- Inequities in food access will still exist.
- People will still continue to turn to the Food Bank for help.

There isn’t a vaccine for hunger, so it will take us all working together to make this a better year for our struggling neighbors. When it comes to fighting hunger, don’t forget that YOU ARE ESSENTIAL With your help, the Sky Valley Food Bank will be here for our community, just like it has been for the past forty-five years!

As we move forward, let’s bring with us the biggest lesson learned last year: we can achieve incredible feats when we all work together! You answered our call for help time and time again, and it’s this unwavering support that keeps us going. Thank you!
